Vinfen's Cambridge/Somerville Recovery Learning Center's (CSRLC's) mission is to promote, support, and empower people to go back to school or work. It is a peer-to-peer recovery and support program that instills and fosters hope and resilience for all members. CSRLC, funded by the Department of Mental Health, is a partner of the MetroBoston Recovery Learning Community, where people with lived experience of psychiatric conditions join together to promote their recovery.
